Office hours are Monday through Friday (except holidays) from 8:00 am to noon and 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm. Unless there is an activity or event taking place, please use the Broad Street entrance by the mailbox.

In case of emergency or urgent need, our pastor is available at all hours and all days by calling his cell phone. Please use the office phone for other business. Please also remember that Sunday morning and other worship times are not for bringing church business to other members or staff but for focusing upon the Word and gifts of God. "The seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God. On it you shall not do any work." - Exodus 20:10

“There is one whose rash words are like sword thrusts, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.”
-Proverbs 12:18

Rash words. They come all too easily. When someone in the lane next to you tries to merge into the side of your car. When your husband fails (again!) to take out the garbage when asked. When your coworker in the meeting disagrees with your budget assessment. When the customer service representative asks to put you on hold for the third time.

When we respond to situations like these rashly and emotionally our words cut our friends, neighbors, and loved ones like sword thrusts. We all know what kind of pain and damage come from words spoken in the heat of the moment. When we speak rashly we are likely to encounter regret.

But the words of the wise are different. Wisdom leads us to hold our tongues in moments of passion. He leads us to keep our mouths closed when all we have are sharp words, and to speak only when we can be of service to those around us. Just as surely as rash words cause wounds, so too can the words of the wise bring healing. A calm response to an emotional coworker can ease their concerns and lead to fruitful dialogue. A patient fourth request to take out the trash can lead a distracted husband to repentance. A long awaited apology can heal a friendship badly broken.

This proverb should not surprise us because ultimately Christ is the wisdom and power of God (1 Cor. 1:24). Words spoken in anger and malice have no place in Christ. Rather the words of those that are in Christ are words of Christ. We preach Christ crucified for sinners like us and those wise words bring ultimate healing.

Greetings Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

Supporting our staff at OSLC is important work for everyone in the congregation. We want them to be successful in their work, pursue their goals and have a healthy work/life balance. We do this in a loving and supporting way by paying attention to their needs, celebrating success, helping them achieve their goals and sometimes just being there for them.

You are already showing that support by agreeing to continue the search for a second Pastor to help in ministering to the members of OSLC.

Another way we show staff how grateful we are for them and what they do is by supporting their continuing education. We have supported staff continuing education in the past and continue to do so today. Deaconess Brand met with the Board of Elders to discuss her goal of obtaining her doctorate through Concordia Theological Seminary Fort Wayne where she received her Deaconess education. The Board of Elders fully support Deaconess Brand in this goal.

Through continuing education staff are exposed to new and creative ideas for doing their work. The Board of Elders sees this as a huge benefit to OSLC, by supporting Deaconess Brand in her pursuit of an advanced degree. This does mean Deaconess Brand will be attending classes at the Seminary for two weeks each school quarter. Thank you for your continued support of our wonderful staff at OSLC! If you have any questions, feel free to speak with an Elder.

Classes for Lisa

As many of you know, I enjoy learning as well as teaching. I'm planning to take more courses at the seminary in Ft. Wayne beginning this January. I'm not officially admitted yet but hope to pursue a PhD in Missiology.

What is Missiology you ask? It's the intersection of theology and life. Think mission of the church. How do we reach people? What is effective? The courses take place in two week intensives, on campus, four times a year. Following two years of classes are another roughly two years of research and writing.

I appreciate the Elders and other church leaders being supportive of my education. This is something I've wanted to do for a long time and am looking forward to it. Learning is so refreshing!

Pew Sisters

Everyone has a story. Do you know the stories of the people sitting in the pews around you? There are probably high points and low points. Stories of God's provision or teaching. Let's learn some stories. They can even help us grow or find an area where we can serve.

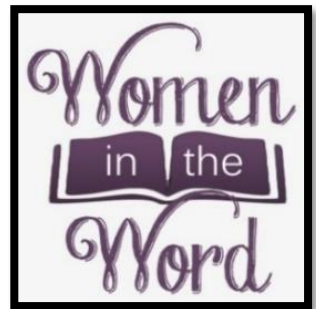

We're going to read stories of fellow Christian women in the book "Pew Sisters" and then consider life events in relation to faith. We hope you will join us on Wednesdays beginning January 3 at 5:15pm in the library. Let Deaconess Lisa know if you would like a book. (lisa@oslcmandato.org or 385-2185)

There was also time to spend thanking and praising our Lord in prayer.

What is our next event? Who is in the planning? I heard a number of new ideas and am waiting for someone to come forward so we can plan. May – daughters! Early Flight Breakfast at 7:07AM at church! During light hours!

A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life ~ <https://lutheransforlife.org>

LCMS Stewardship Ministry: The Chief Stewards of Humanity: Mom and Dad

St. Paul tells the Ephesians that the first commandment with a specific promise attached to it is, “Honor your father and mother so that it may go well with you, and you may live long in the land” (Eph. 6:2). This promise is one indication of the importance of this commandment. The other thing that highlights the special nature of this commandment is its placement within the Ten Commandments.

The Ten Commandments are clearly organized in two big categories. The first three commandments deal with our relationship with God. This category is called the First Table of the Law. The last seven commandments, the Second Table of the Law, tell us how we should relate to other people. These two tables correspond to what Jesus calls the two greatest commandments: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind,” and “You shall love your neighbor as yourself” (Matt. 22:37–39).

The order of the Second Table of the Law is also important. Murder is a greater sin than adultery, which is a greater sin than stealing, or lying, or coveting. But why is the Fourth Commandment first in the Second Table, ahead of “you shall not murder”? Is disobeying your parents really worse than murder? Or maybe we should give up on thinking these commandments are ordered?

The overall effect of this order is to get us to see our parents as a connection point between our neighbors and our God. Throughout our upbringing our father and mother stand between us and God and deliver His gifts to us: God clothes us, feeds us, protects us and teaches His Word to us through our parents.

So, parents have a very high calling from God. They are called to be stewards of the greatest gift: the gift of life.

Parenting thus gives us a keen insight into all our stewardship. Parents know that they have been given a great treasure in their children, a treasure that does not belong to them, yet for which they feel a great deal of responsibility. Truth be told, every gift we have been given is like this, because everything we have — whether our own personal skills and powers or our wealth and time — is all from God. He entrusts it all to us so that we can use it all and take care of it all for His great purposes.
